

PROFOUND SOUND

Live & Experimental

Sound Festival

12&13 Feb 2016

FRIDAY 12TH FEBRUARY 2016

PROFOUND SOUND

Mixing live music & sounds, projections, performances, spoken word & sound installations, Folkestone Fringe, Lime Bar & Hot Salvation Records present a brand new 2 day festival for Folkestone.

Bringing you extraordinary theatre, alternative bands, song, synth & sound loops, across multiple venues in Folkestone.

The Bullet & The Base Trombone Sleepdogs 7.30pm - 9.15pm £10, cons. £8 Quarterhouse

There's a concert orchestra, trapped in a city during a military coup. Separated – lost, trying to find each other the composer is left to tell the story. With an intricate, fractured narrative & haunting soundtrack, the story comes together from the smallest of sounds.

Found Sounds Set Andy Backhouse | 8pm - 9pm Brewery Tap

Playing from a large collection of found sounds & field recordings mixed across four decks, Andy Backhouse creates the soundscape to an imaginary landscape.

Found Sounds is the pre-event to MMCI performance at 9pm.

MCCI Montrose Composers' Club 9pm - 10pm

£5, £6 on door | Brewery Tap

Classically trained, with backgrounds in jazz, folk and cabaret, this five-strong collective will premiere seven genre defying new pieces at their debut concert 'MCCI'.

Late admittance permitted following The Bullet & The Base Trombone.

Alexander Monk 10pm - Midnight | £4 | Lime Bar

Alex Monk draws on both the 60s & 70s acid folk movement as well as ambient & electronic experiments. References to early Eno, Coil & Robert Wyatt have been made to his work & his performances normally move between song & improvisation.

SATURDAY 13TH FEBRUARY 2016

LIFTED Emily Peasgood 12.30pm & 1.30pm | ASDA Lift | Free

LIFTED is a lift installation created and composed by conceptual artist Emily Peasgood. Performed by a live choir & beat boxer it brings background music to the forefront through a live musical installation of lift music that cannot be ignored. Performance begins from the Ground Floor.

FESTIVAL PASS £25
